North West
Manufacturers
FREE Breakfast
Networking Event

Thursday 20 November 2008

7.30am - 10.00am

The Solaris Centre, Harrowside, New South Promenade, Blackpool FY4 1RW

Manufacturing Advisory Service North West (MAS NW) invites you to a free breakfast networking event to introduce the range of services available to support your manufacturing business. Come along and find out how we can help you to drive up productivity, reduce costs and add more to your bottom line.

BERR's Manufacturing Advisory Service in the North West, delivered by The Manufacturing Institute, will give an introduction to the principles of lean manufacturing and provide a real life case study example from a fellow manufacturer.

"The introduction of lean manufacturing principles has vastly improved our production process, and increased the awareness of non-value adding activities amongst all of the workforce."

Chris Dunn, General Manager
Biojet International, Blackburn (18 employees)

Improve Profitability & Competitiveness

Come and hear the enlightening story of lean. A real life case study will show how practical process improvement solutions can reduce or eliminate waste and improve the bottom line. Take advantage of a great opportunity to network with like-minded manufacturers.

Who should attend?

Managing Directors, Owners, Financial Directors, HR Managers, Production Managers and Team Leaders in small to large sized companies looking for practical ways of improving business performance and competitiveness.
